

Cloze Passage:

Chris Moon is an extraordinary man. In 1993, this former Army officer, while ... (86) ... clearing mines in the jungle in Cambodia, was captured by the Cambodian Khmer Rouge rebels. Against ... (87) ..., Chris managed to escape. In fact, he is one of very few people to survive kidnap by the Khmer Rouge. Two years later, Chris was clearing landmines in Mozambique when he ... (88) ... a mine. He lost his lower right leg, and his right arm. He lost a lot of blood and ... (89) ... but survived through sheer ... (90) ... and the will to live. Chris was fitted with prosthetic limbs, but refused to let his ... (91) ... hold him back. Incredibly, within a year of leaving hospital, he ran the London Marathon. ... (92) ..., he's completed more than fifteen other ... (93) ..., including the 250-km Great Sahara Run, a race across the Sahara desert, which ... (94) ... as 'the toughest footrace on earth' and a 135-mile race through Death Valley in the USA.

Chris' determination to ... (95) ... his disability has resulted in achievements ... (96) ... never manage in a lifetime. ... (97) ... completing some of the world's toughest races and raising thousands of pounds for charity, he has climbed Mount Kilimanjaro, written an autobiography, and appeared on TV.

These days, Chris earns a living as a motivational speaker. Chris is someone who, ... (98) ... the power of positive thinking, has overcome incredible bad fortune. He gives ... (99) ... to audiences around the world on motivation and leadership, and has ... (100) ... many people with his passion and determination. Indeed, he is an inspiration to us all.

- |      |                    |                       |                    |                      |
|------|--------------------|-----------------------|--------------------|----------------------|
| 86.  | 1) dangerously     | 2) voluntarily        | 3) necessarily     | 4) ironically        |
| 87.  | 1) the charges     | 2) the odds           | 3) his will        | 4) their wishes      |
| 88.  | 1) stepped on      | 2) planted            | 3) looked for      | 4) detected          |
| 89.  | 1) might have died | 2) would die          | 3) could have died | 4) had been dying    |
| 90.  | 1) boredom         | 2) negligence         | 3) determination   | 4) stupidity         |
| 91.  | 1) carrier         | 2) poverty            | 3) disease         | 4) disability        |
| 92.  | 1) Since then      | 2) Then               | 3) Since           | 4) Since when        |
| 93.  | 1) travel          | 2) discoveries        | 3) events          | 4) marathons         |
| 94.  | 1) has described   | 2) has been described | 3) is describing   | 4) will be described |
| 95.  | 1) treat           | 2) conceal            | 3) overcome        | 4) disclose          |
| 96.  | 1) as we           | 2) most of us         | 3) of us that      | 4) for us            |
| 97.  | 1) As well as      | 2) Rather than        | 3) Despite         | 4) As much as        |
| 98.  | 1) behind          | 2) like               | 3) along           | 4) through           |
| 99.  | 1) presentations   | 2) compliments        | 3) opportunities   | 4) offers            |
| 100. | 1) rescued         | 2) counseled          | 3) alienated       | 4) inspired          |

پاسخنامه کلیدی
86	2	96	2
87	2	97	1
88	1	98	4
89	3	99	1
90	3	100	4
91	4
92	1
93	4
94	2
95	3		